MENDOCINO WOMEN'S POLITICAL COALITION,
UKIAH DAILY JOURNAL
CANDIDATE FORUM
Monday, May 9, 2022 6:00 p.m.

In preparation for the June 7, primary election, the Mendocino Women's Political Caucus, the American Association of University Women, and the Ukiah Daily Journal will host a CANDIDATE FORUM on Monday, May 9, 2022 in the UKIAH CITY COUNCIL CHAMBERS located at 300 Seminary Avenue in Ukiah. The forum will begin at 6 p.m.

This forum will present the candidates for the Mendocino County Board of Supervisors, District 5, The Mendocino County Superintendent and Katrina Bartolomie and David Eyster, unopposed candidate for county-wide office.

Our organizations have jointly hosted candidate forums on a regular basis for over 25 years. It is our experience that these forums generate a great deal of voter interest and we hope and expect that all candidates will participate. Our goal is to educate voters and encourage voter involvement.

Each candidate will have the opportunity for short opening and closing statements. Questions from the audience will be submitted to the moderator on index cards and each candidate will have equal time to answer the questions and to respond to each other. The moderator will ask as many questions as possible but will use her discretion to choose questions of most interest to the voting public. Tables will be located in the foyer for your campaign literature, but campaign signs are not permitted.

The Mendocino Voice will stream the Candidate Forum.
